KYO Orchestras (JKYO, IKYO, SKYO) Instrument Loan Policy 2022-2023:

- This loan is for an instrument owned by the Kawartha Youth Orchestra for the 2022/2023 season OR for as long as the musician is enrolled in KYO programs OR until KYO requests return of the instrument
- If an instrument is damaged or needs repair, the borrower must notify the KYO immediately at info@kawarthayouthorchestra.org, and return the instrument immediately for assessment. Every effort will be made to quickly get a working instrument back to the musician.
- The borrower is responsible for proper care during the loan period. If damage has occurred due to carelessness or ill treatment of the instrument, the KYO reserves the right to invoice a participant for either the cost of repair or the full current cost of a replacement instrument.
- The loan is considered completed only after inspection of the instrument by a KYO representative

The KYO loan program is dependent upon musicians returning instruments in good condition and within the time frame stipulated by the KYO. Please be responsible!
